The High School Chorns itself will sling at the Horse Show Building at the following hours and days: On Friday at 9:39 A. M.; on Saturday morning at 3:30, and at the Davis Monument at 3 P. M. Monday. At these concerts the chorus will sing only Confederate songs, all the martial and sentimental airs so dear to the veteran heart being rendered with dash and spirit and excellent ensemble.

The school chorus will also participate in the mighty chorus of 500 yolces, which will give a great sacred concert on Supday evening at 8:39 choice.

Lee, grand commander of the United Confederate Veterans, as he and his eacort passed the hall. The half, in cluding the rostrum and gallery, which is in charge of Mr. Walter C. Mercer, was filled completely by the chorus.

The Arkansas Room at the Confederate Museum is the recipient of a very handsome Confederate battleflag, which has been kindly loaned by a patietic lady of Little Rock. It is a large silk flag, a fac-simile of the flag used during the war by the Sixth Reginnent of Arkansas Volunteers, and is the handlwork of Mrs. Lea, the wife of Hon. Robert J. Voung folks naturally like comely objects, and a good looking, healthy teacher can do vastly more with pupils, everything else considered, than the skinny, dyspeptic teacher can. The instructor in Latin and mathematics in a young ladies seminary, had an experience worthy the attention of any teacher.

She kept running down a little more each year until finally a genuine case of nervous prostration set in, and she was confined to her bed for eight months, a perfect wreck, physically and mentally. She and her friends thought it was due to overwork, but she now knows it was due to improper food.

Of course the physicians were called in, but there is almost nothing that can be done in such cases, except to rely on well-selected food and proper care. She was put upon Grape-Nuts, all medicines, also tea, coffee and leed drinks, were taken away. She had Postum Food Coffee once a day. The larger part of her food was Grape-Nuts, for this food is made with special reference to rebuilding the gray matter in the brain and nerve centres.

The lady says: "I had been reduced to 95 nounds in weelfs! when I heard to delevations."
